Three teenage Pokémon Go players have been robbed of their mobile phones at gunpoint in a north London park, prompting police to warn of the dangers of roaming the streets with expensive mobile phones on show.

- Always accompanying younger children
- Older children: know the potential dangers, not to speak to strangers and not to wander too far on their adventures
- Telling all children to be aware of their surroundings, including trespassing
- Reminding children to save battery for phone use, in an emergency

What do we say to primary aged children?

Share Safe - Personal information	Be Nice - Cyberbullying
Tell Someone - Trusted adults	Ask First - Games, sites, apps

Education Child Protection Ltd.

What else do CEOP say...?

-  WE ARE HERE TO HELP!
"We are police officers. We take this very seriously".
-  CHECK YOUR USERNAME!
"Don't tell people who you are - use a fun nickname instead".
-  TRUST YOUR TUMMY!
"If anything makes your stomach feel funny, tell an adult you trust, or CEOP....".

What could you give as answer if someone on a game says to you: "where do you live?"

N O Y B

"None of your business...!"

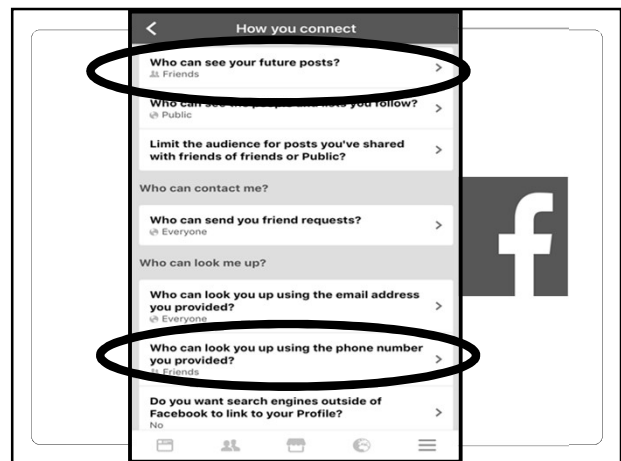

Using social networking sites, it is so important that we use privacy settings to keep ourselves, and our information, safe!

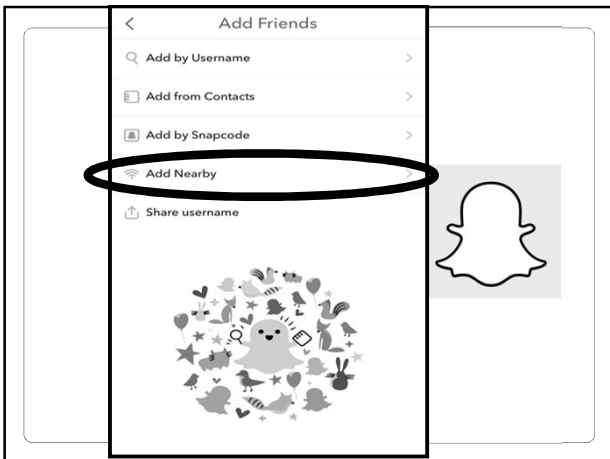

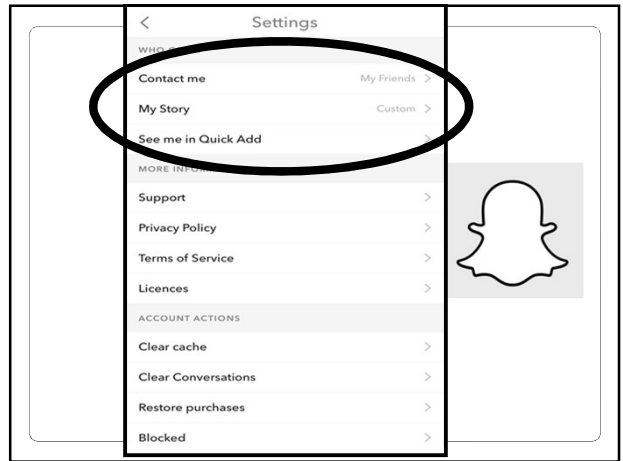

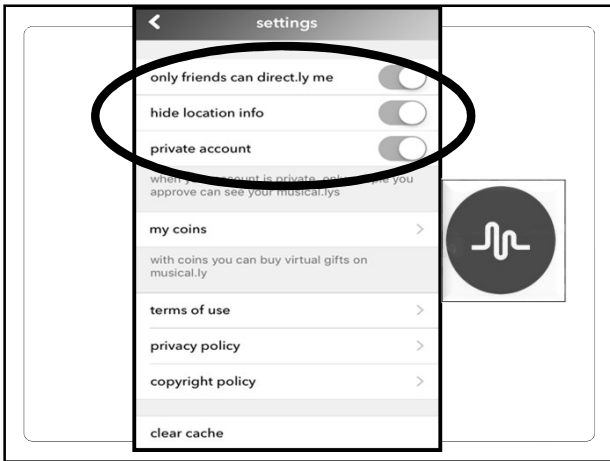

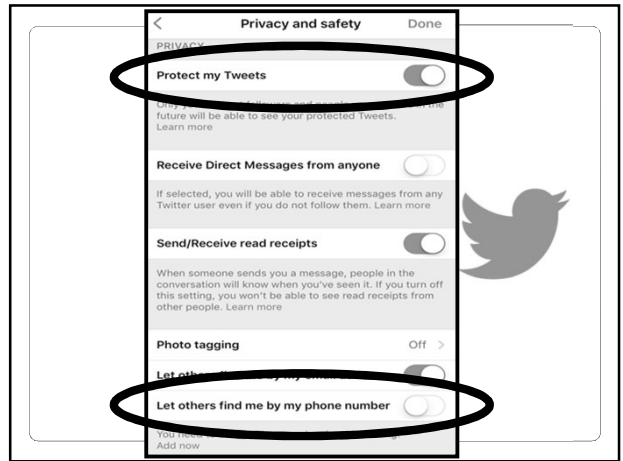

So how do we do it...?

Child Exploitation Online Protection Centre (CEOP)

How do offenders engage youngsters?
 - by using the sites that they use....

Often posing as a child of the same age / gender.
 They will often purposefully present a very similar profile as the child.
 They are skilled at manipulating them into criminal sexual relationships

Online grooming: The five stages

Friendship

Flattering a child
 into talking in a private chatroom/game where they will be isolated
 The child will often be asked for a non-sexual picture of themselves

Online grooming: The five stages

Forming a relationship

Gaining information
 asking the child what problems /needs they have to create the illusion of being their best friend and that they can help
 They begin to fill the needs of the child

Online grooming: The five stages

Risk assessment

Asking the child about the location of their computer/tablet and who else has access to it in order to assess the risk of being detected. The desire is to create situations where they are alone together to help reinforce a special connection

Online grooming: The five stages

Exclusivity

Building up a sense of mutual love and trust with the child suggesting that they can discuss "anything"

Online grooming: The five stages

Sex talk / Meet

Engaging the child in explicit conversations & requesting sexually explicit pictures from them

At this stage the predator will usually try to arrange a meeting with the child

Breck Bednar - 14 years old -

Murdered after being groomed by 19 year old Lewis Daynes - on gaming sites like 'Minecraft'

14 Year Old Girl abducted and abused for four days by David Telles (38 years) flew over from California. She was groomed on 'Clash of Clans'

cyberbullying

Cyberbullying is when someone bullies others over the internet or on a mobile phone by sending abusive emails or texts directly or by posting nasty comments or humiliating images for others to see. Like any form of bullying, cyberbullying can be horrible for the children involved and hard for them to talk about.

24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year

No safe place, hard to escape

Doesn't empathise with victim

Bully can be anonymous

Easily shared with an audience and has the ability to go viral in seconds

cyberbullying

- Report
- Save the evidence
- Try not to respond
- Block the Bully
- Be aware of what you share
- S-Start
- T-Telling
- O-Other
- P-People

cyberbullying

What you say online should pass through three gates

Ask yourself is it TRUE?
Ask yourself is it NECESSARY?
Ask yourself is it KIND?

cyberbullying

What should I do if my child is being bullied online?

Stay calm Listen without judging
 Tell them you can help
 Keep the evidence Praise them for talking to you
 Ask them not to reply Block the bullies

 Report information to your child's school.

Children who post or send indecent images of themselves online are very easily blackmailed / exploited - as young as eight years old

40%
13-18 yr olds admitted to SEXTING

60%
13-18 yr olds admitted to seeing images of others

Kids 'sext' to....
 show off
 to entice someone
 to show interest in someone
 to prove commitment

By creating, sending or possessing indecent pictures of a person under 18 you are breaking the law
 (Protection of Children Act 1978 / Criminal Justice Act 1988) ...

Police have only recently started filing crime reports about sexting...

If school choose to take an incident to the police, then officers must record the crime.

A boy who sent a naked photograph of himself to a girl at school has had the crime of making and distributing indecent images recorded against him by police, the BBC has learnt.

The boy, aged 14, who was not arrested or charged, could have his name stored on a police database for 10 years.

- Use a strong password

Last Bits of Advice:

Understand what children do online, and keep yourself up to date with what the latest websites / games are that children use.

The children I work with have agreed to tell me if they are worried about something online - I know where to get help if I'm concerned about children.

Protect yourself! Privacy schools / social networking friends / Google yourself!
